Nothing Much Happening on 2 m EME

Just like last issue there is not much news at the moment. And if there's news it is not always mature for publication. This comes in quite handy as I'm very busy with a lot of things, not only QRLwise. So this time it will be yet another basic one. I hope things will get better with the October issue which will be online October 7th.

Upcoming DXpeditions

For more information on current and upcoming DXpeditions please have a look at www.mmmmonvhf.de from where most of the information here was gathered unless noted otherwise.

KA6U might or might not become QRV on 2 m again from some wanted grid squares, most probably in the SouthEastern part of the USA. Dates are not fixed yet.

Emil DL8JJ will activate 2 m EME during his free shifts with the Mediterraneo Dx Club's XT2MD DXpedition to Burkina Faso in November. Locator is IK92FG.
